Description

Designed with the Annunciation, the Virgin seated before an edifice, an open book on her lap, the Archangel Gabriel stands before her bearing a sceptre, a lily by his side, framed within and ogee-shaped roundel, surrounded by tulips, roses and trefoils, border of metallic braid

For a similar example, again designed with the Annunciation, see the Metropolitan Museum, New York collection, acc. no. 41.100.59, attributed to Denmark
